

THE BUDAPEST REPORT (www.budapestreport.com) online new-media service is read by a worldwide audience, enquiring about in-depth news and analysis on Hungarian and related international issues. The site has been officially approved by the Google News search engine service, therefore attracts a global audience. We are one of the few available English-language news outlets in Hungary. Our site connects with visitors through RSS feeds, e-mail updates and a variety of social media networking sites, including Facebook and Twitter.

The majority of our visitors are primarily interested in news and issues relating to Central and Eastern Europe, therefore we focus on this market niche. Also, we receive as many as 1,000 unique visitors per day. Giving you access to our verified Google Analytics account will guarantee ultimate exposure to your advertisements. Based on our feedback, the majority of our viewers are professionals (between age 25-45) who have sufficient disposable income.

Market statistics show that about “20% of consumers purchase about 80% of available product volumes.” Generally every article read on site is verbally recommended or discussed with at least three other viewers, according to new media analysts. Through engaging content that attracts visitors to our site, THE BUDAPEST REPORT offers a unique opportunity to connect with a dynamically increasing group, your potential target audience, in a more personal and constructive way.

What we offer:

Please note, our prices are in Hungarian Forints and do not include VAT!
